Some Classic Snapshots

Lion Harry Fulwiler seems to be saying “now Jennie, I’ve been set up by Bill Sour. He even tried to convince us that he wasn’t feeling all that good. Oh come on, Harry. You would never know this guy is a respectable business man in the real world.

These guys look like a couple of thugs from the East side of Chicago, and one is actually from Chicago. On the left is Lion Curt Barnhill, North Carolina, and the other one is Lion Bill Prucha, Illinois. This was during our 30th Anniversary Party costume contest.

We know that Bob Meyer, Tennessee, Harry Fulwiler, Virginia, Al Cluny, Canada, and Angelo Strazzante, Illinois, are up front with all the young Hooters Girls. If you look hard enough, you might be able to see Bill Prucha, Illinois, looking over the shoulder of one of the girls. Pin traders really do have fun when we get together at conventions.

Snapshots of Traders at the Swaps and Conventions

This is truly a "classic". That's LITPC PP Dr. O. J. Ratcliff in the background, and completely oblivious to the picture being taken of Lion Bill Sour, Colorado, and PDG Kendall McBride, Wyoming. The photo was taken in Golden, Colorado, during our 1992 Alternate Site Meeting. Both "Doc" Ratcliff and PDG Kendall were subsequently elected to the LITPC Hall of Fame. This is one of the rare photos taken of Kendall in his famous 50 pound Lions vest with a few of his pins. At the time, he was just about the only person who could have worn that "monster" of a vest.

Kissing Cousins. Lions Al Clooney of Ontario, Canada, and Dave Harris, Virginia, have just completed a mutually agreeable swap. No, they didn't really kiss.
