NOTE: The next Update is planned for distribution during the last week of February and will feature primarily those pins which will be available for trade during the PA Swap in York. Pins scheduled for trading during the Midwest Pin Swap will be featured in the March Update. If you have pins that you wish to have in either of these updates, you will need to get one of each to me accordingly. For the York Swap, I will need them in my hands by 27 February and for the Midwest Swap, I will need them in my hands by 30 March. I have Holiday Series pins for trade or will purchase pins that you send, depending upon your preference.
