NOTE:

REMOVE PAGE HS-144 THAT WAS FURNISHED YOU IN THE OCTOBER UPDATE AND REPLACE IT WITH THE PAGE HS-144 PROVIDED WITH THIS UPDATE. THE PIN FOR LION CURT BARNHILL THAT WAS MISSING IS NOW INCLUDED ON THAT PAGE.

REMOVE PAGE HS-148 THAT WAS FURNISHED YOU IN THE OCTOBER UPDATE AND REPLACE IT WITH THE PAGE HS-148 PROVIDED WITH THIS UPDATE. IN THIS CONNECTION, THE EMPTY SPACE ON THE PAGE HAS NOW BEEN FILLED OUT WITH THE IMAGES THAT WERE TRADED IN WINCHESTER AND WERE INADVERTINGLY OMITTED FROM THE OCTOBER UPDATE. I REGRET THE PROBLEMS THAT MAY HAVE BEEN CAUSED DURING THE TRADING IN WINCHESTER AS A RESULT OF THIS OMISSION.

Please respond to the Survey Form that is attached behind the last page of this update. It concerns the decision on whether we will initiate a new series, and if so, what that might be.

NOTE: The ANZAC Day Holiday pin depicts the Changi Prisoner of War Camp in Singapore during World War II. Lion Bill Sutton's father was a prisoner at Changi and this pin is in memory of Bill's father. We thank Lion Bill for sharing this bit of history with us and congratulate him on the issue of the pin.

The Southwest Choo Choo on a Year-Long Holiday Trip

THE NEXT SERIES SURVEY

The extremely popular Holiday Series will end in June 2016 during the LITPC Alternate Site Meeting in Denver. Many have suggested that they would like to see us initiate a new series but few have recommended a subject. Some have also suggested that it might be time to take a year-long “rest” from all the excitement that a series invariably creates. Space in one’s home for more pins and the costs involved certainly enters into the mix when voting for another series that might possibly generate as many or more pins as the Holiday Series. However, should the consensus be that we need a break, it would be wise to consider what the impact would have on two and three day pin swaps. Without the new pins generated from a series, you seriously must ask yourself what do you really have to go after when you attend one of the swaps. Most traders obtain their annual multiple district pins through their previously established trading partners without regard for a series. As for the much sought-after “older” pins, good luck in finding these on your fellow pin traders tables. Those pins are, for the most part, reserved for the auctions and they are not all that easy to obtain unless you have deep pockets. It’s difficult to imagine that one would want to travel very far to attend a swap just merely to look at pins that most of us already have in our collections. Anyway, regardless of how you feel about the pros and cons of a new series, we need your input. You may merely vote for or against another series but we hope that you will at least vote. In this connection, this survey is going only to those of you who, over the years, have shown an interest in this aspect of our hobby. Without you, the Holiday Series and preceding series would not have been possible. PLEASE let us hear from you.

_____ I vote YES for another series.

_____ I suggest the following as a general subject.

_____ The Animal World (This would include both domestic and wild and both land and water)

_____ Trains

_____ Air & Space

_____ Historical Personalities

_____ Historical Events

_____ Others (Let us hear from you)

_____ I vote NO for another series at this time.

Send your response to tabs52@comcast.net or to PCC Bill Smith, 3643 Osborne Drive, Warrenton, VA 20187.

WE LOOK FORWARD TO YOUR INPUT
