 Global Belly Laugh Day

The Laughing Oath

I do solemnly swear from this day forward to grease my giggling gears each day and to wear a grin on my face for no reason at all. I promise to tap my funny bone often with children, family, friends, colleagues and clients, and to laugh at least fifteen times per day. I believe that frequent belly laughter cures terminal tightness, cerebral stiffness, and hardening of the attitudes, and that HA HA often leads to AHA! Therefore, I vow, from this day forth to brighten the day of everyone I meet, and to laugh long and prosper.

NOTE: Our thanks to Lion Scott Corson for honoring this unusual and wonderful special day. The "Laughing Oath" is particularly special.

NEW SERIES To Have or Have Not

You may recall the Survey Form attached to the Nov-Dec Update to determine whether there is sufficient interest to warrant the initiation of a new series upon conclusion of this Holiday Series. If we base our decision right now on the results of the input from the survey, there will NOT be a new series for the foreseeable future. Unfortunately, I did not have a deadline for a response so I am once again asking for your input with the understanding that the deadline for responding is hereby established as 15 February 2016.

I have received responses from 56 of you and 12 of you voted NO to a new series. Obviously 44 traders who wish to have another series falls far short of the 75-100 needed for a successful series such as The Holiday Series. As of this update, 199 different individuals have issued pins in the Holiday Series. Of the 44 who have voted for a new series, the subject for the new series is about even between the Animal World and Trains. There's always the possibility of combining the two subjects for a rather interesting series.

Most of you who responded "no" did not share my concern that the absence of a series might have a negative impact on upcoming pin swaps. The general feeling in the "no" responses seems to be that those who want to have something to trade at a swap will either issue individual pins or will join with some of their fellow pin traders in a set which will be made available at specific swaps and will not be encumbered by a series. Financial considerations and/or space limitations for ones collection seems to be the driving force. The overwhelming complaint by many (both "yes" and "no") was the number of large sets with the same image, the only difference being a color change for an element on the pin (hat, scarf, shoe, etc.). The common comment was "who wants 15 or 20 of the same pin, except for a slight color difference."

Having said all of this, if you overlooked responding to my initial request or if you felt there was no need to respond within any time limits, this will be the last opportunity and the results will be announced in the February update to the Holiday Series, which will be published the last week in the month.

_____ I vote YES for a new series.

_____ Animals

_____ Trains

_____ Other

_____ Animals & Trains

(Should be attractive for collectors of both subjects. You can collect them all or just the ones you choose)

NOTE: IF YOU HAVE ALREADY VOTED, THERE IS NO NEED TO VOTE AGAIN.

_____ I vote NO for a new series.

Please send your response by e-mail to PCC Bill Smith at tabs52@comcast.net or by regular mail to 3643 Osborne Dr., Warrenton VA 20187.
