LITPC Special Issues

Some of the issues in this section were issued by the LITPC and some were issued by individual members and by Multiple District Pin Trading Clubs to commemorate specific events which included LITPC involvement. These issues have become highly collectible and are prized additions to many collections that have been accumulated over the years by the LITPC membership.

Mystery Pin Trader Pins

The Mystery Pin Trader Series was started at the 2015 Northeast Pin Swap when President Bob Libin introduced it. The plan is for the President to appoint a mystery pin trader who will keep a list of pin traders who traded with the "Mystery Pin Trader" and at the end of the swap a pin will be given to that list of pin traders.

This "Blue" pin was issued at the 2015 Northeast Pins Swap held in Dedham, MA; was also given at the 2016 Southwest Pin Swap held at Ardmore, OK and 2016 North Carolina Pin Swap held at Sherrills Ford, NC and was given to pin traders who traded with the Mystery Pin Trader at these swaps.

This "Green" pin was issued at the 2015 Western Pins Swap held in Reno, Nevada and was given to pin traders who traded with the Mystery Pin Trader.

This "Maroon" pin was issued at the 2015 Virginia Pins Swap held in Winchester, VA and the 2016 Pennsylvania Swap held in York, PA and was given to pin traders who traded with the Mystery Pin Trader at these swaps.

This "Pewter" pin was issued at the 2016 Alternate Site Swap held in Denver, CO and was given to pin Traders who traded with the Mystery Pin Trader.

Note: These pin are used as a fund raiser for the LITPC Scholarship Program. The white Dangler is for those who were the first in the LITPC 100 program. It has a number 1 to 100 on the pin denoting the number that member was assigned. The blue pin is given to those who contribute $100 but were not in the first one hundred to do so.
