

PENNSYLVANIA - MD 14

PENNSYLVANIA is in the Northeastern and Mid-Atlantic regions of the U.S.A. It was one of the original 13 colonies and was the site (Philadelphia) where the Declaration of Independence was signed in 1775. One of the big tourist attractions even today is the Liberty Bell in Freedom Square in Philadelphia. The State is proud of the heavy population of both the Amish and Mennonite communities where basic farming rules supreme. There are almost 13 million residents in what is often referred to as the "Keystone State". The capital is Harrisburg. In 1920 the first Lions Club was organized in Pittsburgh.
