

MD "U" Pin TRADERS

Presents

NEW YORK STATE OPEN HOUSE @ A HISTORIC LIONS MUSEUM

The museum holds thousands of Lions pins representing Lions clubs districts, states, nations and individuals, banners, vests, neck ties, plaques, street banners, and paraphernalia from around the world.

WHEN: July 18, 2026 Opens @ 8:00 AM

WHERE: 748 Wiler Rd, Hilton, NY 14468

Guidelines and Rules.

- The first fifty advanced registered attendees will receive a free bag of fifty Lions friendship pins to keep or trade. Each LITPC member can select an additional fifteen pins.
- New collectors are not only welcome but encouraged to attend. It will be more fun if you choose a theme such as an animal, sport, or state that you might want to collect before you come. At the day's end, any pins you don't want can be donated back.
- To register, send a $10.00 check to PDG Jim Schiebel 748 Wiler Rd, Hilton, NY 14468.
- Questions: Email: jschiebel@Rochester.rr.com or phone: 585-964-3619
- The doors will open at 8:00 AM and a swap "pin search" will start @1:00 PM. Five pins will be the "entry fee" and each attendee will start with a list of pins to find. Swapping will be encouraged.
- Most trading will be held outside under a tent next to the museum. Table space will be available but you are welcome to bring additional tables.
- No organized meal function is planned but snacks will be available. Donations will be accepted for the LITPC Scholarships and the Empire State Specials Needs Experience at Lions Camp Badger.
- There are a number of hotel rooms available plus camp grounds in the area, if you want to stay before or after the swap.
